OUR COMPANY

At Parisa Communication (Pvt) Limited, our aim is to provide a platform where every woman can confidently showcase her talent. We strive to create an environment where women come together, learn from one another, and make their presence truly felt.

We do not claim to be the best. Instead, we believe in working with fairness and goodwill, ensuring equal opportunities for all. This belief is reflected in the 24 beauty pageants we have organized since our inception, including 3 global pageants.

Our pageants are not just about beauty—they focus on the overall development and empowerment of women, helping them build confidence and transform their lives. By bringing women from diverse backgrounds, age groups, cultures, and countries onto one stage, we encourage the exchange of positive ideas and create a spirit of unity and growth. With DazzlesEvent, every woman begins a new journey of change.

Tabassum, a journalist with the world's only women's news channel Focus TV, has been dedicated to this mission since 2016. She initiated these pageants with the vision of empowering both working women and homemakers. At Parisa Communication, we firmly believe that every woman's dreams and aspirations deserve respect and a chance to be fulfilled.

WHO WE ARE

Parisa Communication Private Limited proudly presents Miss and Mrs. Earth through its brand Dazzle. Our platform has global associations, with countries including the USA, Africa, Ukraine, Russia, Japan, Malaysia, Italy, Moldova, Latvia, Borneo, Philippines, Poland, Kosovo, Nepal, Czech Republic, Austria, Sudan and India,

We are committed to providing fair and equal opportunities to every participant, ensuring they can compete and showcase their talent without discrimination. From the very beginning, our brand has strived to promote cultural awareness and community pride through diverse events. We aim to ensure that women delegates from different countries not only represent themselves but also share their culture and national pride with the world.

The Mrs. Earth Pageant is designed to encourage community development and cultural exchange between nations. It provides women worldwide with the chance to demonstrate their intelligence, leadership, and individuality.

This is not just another beauty pageant—it is a life-changing platform. For participants, finalists, and winners alike, it offers a new chapter that brings out their inner beauty, highlights their true potential, and builds their confidence.

The grand finale of Mrs. Earth will also feature accomplished women from across the globe who have proven their abilities and success through talent, determination, and hard work.

Motive & Goal

Around the world, thousands of pageants are organized. Yet, when people think of beauty, the image of a “model” often comes to mind. This stereotype becomes an obstacle for many women, discouraging them from participating.

Many women hold back, considering their background or personality. However, qualities like tolerance, sacrifice, dedication, and resilience—unique strengths found in women—often go unnoticed. Unfortunately, an unknown fear prevents them from taking confident steps forward.

Our mission is to eliminate this fear. We do not provide shortcuts or artificial solutions—we focus on rekindling, rejuvenating, and strengthening a woman’s confidence. We remind every contestant of her true worth, her immense abilities, and her leadership qualities—qualities she already demonstrates daily, whether as a homemaker or a working professional.

We do not search for “models.” We are not concerned with anyone’s background, body shape, language, or color. Instead, our goal is to create role models for society—women who inspire confidence, empowerment, and progress. Through this, we aim to contribute to building a stronger and better society.
